

Making camp possible

Kathy Skelly, president of the Wellesley Service League, right, presents Peter Johannsen, president of the Wellesley Friendly Aid Association, a check for $22,000 to help support the Friendly Aid Camp Fund. The Camp Fund enables young Wellesley residents, who would not otherwise be able to do so, attend summer day camp or an academic enrichment program. Last year 65 children benefited from the Camp Fund, and Friendly Aid expects to assist about the same number this year.

COURTESY PHOTO